The Library

~ by Ali

It is very quiet and relaxing where you talk about whatever you want or what's on your mind. You can go online and shop for your favorite outfits or anything you're into. You can study for a big test by your friends side and they can help you out with what you can't understand. Even if you want to just read the same book as a book discussion together. It's just so soothing and relaxing. And what's better than taking out a BSG book! It's like your own special hideout that nobody knows about. You can bring your CD player and some headphones and listen to your own music together or see what the library has on display. Librarians are so nice too. They'll know if it's a private conversation we're having and move over into the other section and do some work it's like having no one there. You could even bring your own DVD player and headphones and watch a movie together. Sometimes there could even be prizes you can win and you all enter the contest. I love the library! It's the best way to connect with friends.

The best place to meet friends, is the ice rink. I love it because all my friends are there.

The perfect place

~ by Bailey, CA

The perfect place for me to meet my friends, is basically everywhere. We meet each other at school, just like the BSG, and also like on the soccer field, or the basketball court, or even the dance floor. We always do things together, and even my friends that move away, I still keep in touch with by e-mail. We do a lot of things together, which makes us closer, and we would never trash talk each other or spill their secrets we are like peas in a pod, and we love to hang out together, no matter where we are, because we just love being together.

That's a very difficult and easy question at the same time. Easy because we hang there twenty four seven, but hard because why do we do it! But since I know so much about this place I am sure I will write a great paragraph about it.

Duxbury Beach. Where the sun is hot and the sand is soft. My second home. On the days that are hot for your house I head down there to enjoy an ice cream and play in the waves. My friends and I usually take walks down the mile long beach and find lots of other kids we haven't seen all summer, so basically we have a reunion. My favorite thing to do there is swim, swim and swim! The tide is usually high but the days its low are my favorite because we can skim board and most importantly find sea glass. Why you ask did I say "most importantly find sea glass" is because a couple of weeks ago each of my several friends found one piece each and decided to make a charm bracelet for each of us when we find more. That charm bracelet is a very important part of my life right now. And so are my friends.

The perfect place to meet with my friends

~ by Samantha

I love meeting with my friends, because we all live about an hour or 2 from each other, so it is a lot of fun when we get together. The perfect place for me to meet with my friends is at our Youth Events. Because they are so much fun and there are so many games to play.

We can root for each other and have a lot of fun. We also get to meet a lot of new people so we can just keep getting more and more friends. At our youth events we play volley ball, sometimes.

We aren't always good, but we keep cheering each other on. Sometimes we play air hockey, too. Meeting with my friends is so much fun, I wish we could do it more, but when we get to we really enjoy it, and we have a lot of fun. That is why I think Youth Events are the perfect place to meet with my friends.

I have a lot of favorite places. One of them is the book store because I love to read and there is always something to read there. Another one of my favorite places are the movie theater because it is a good place to spend time with people and there are good movies.

Our Rooms

~ by Katherine

My room is the place to hold our book club. The book club is a mixture of different books like The Beacon Street Girls, the American Girls, and others that we discover. We can sit at my desk or on my bed and talk or just read. Some of my friends, Isabel and Helena, also have really cool rooms. In their rooms we talk and read magazines, and we like to use what we can find in there. Nail polish, other makeup, trinkets, and books. Another great hangout with them is there front yard, where we do gymnastics and we wheel on our hee-les. My other friend, Marris-a, has a very fun room with Bunk beds where we can hang out. We've also started a club that we do in her room. Our rooms all seem to have a chain, where we are very close, and that is partly thanks to our rooms.

Hey marty!

The perfect place to hang out with my friends is the beach, but only in the summer! I love to hang out at the beach because if I bring one friend I end up playing with three because they happen to be going to the beach on the same day. My friends and I always lay on the big rocks and talk, and when we are really, really, really hot we jump off the rock into the water. My friends and I usually have a big lunch picnic with everybody we know on the beach. The beach is so much fun, that is why it is the perfect spot to hang with friends!

The best place to meet with my friends is at Mykayla`s pool. It`s the best place because we can be our self. We can swim, talk, eat, and have fun. We don`t have worry if evil boys hear us. We can talk about what we want. We Dont have to worry if we don`t swim great, because everyone else helps us. We dont worry about what we eat. we swim it off. It`s like home.

My special place

~ Anonymous

The place I usually meet my friends at is the school's amphitheater. We love talking and hanging out there. We always talk about everything there like boys, school, girls we hate, and homework. That's our place where we first met. So it's special. We only see each other there on break, after school, or before school. Otherwise, we hang out at each other's house. Sometimes, we hang out at other places, but during school, we always hang out together right at our usual spot. We've done a lot of things at our hang out. But nothing beats that special hang out!

The perfect place to meet my friends is the mall. Of course because we love to shop because we are girls and it's in our blood. Also the reason I like to hang with my friends at the mall is because there is lots of stuff to do like shop (of course), just hang out, chat with all our buds that is there and just walk around. That is mainly the reasons that I love to hang out at the mall with my buds because all we are doing is being our selves. That is the best place to hang with my friends.

Dear Marty,

A perfect place to meet my friends is a playground near my old apartment. It had a little ledge that you can climb there are also 2 trees you can climb. Only a few people could climb the trees, the rest of us would just sit on the floor of the ledge. That would be our feeling/thoughts/talking place. there would also take turns riding those. (even though we fought a lot sharing them). Ha Ha!!! There is also a little's kids playground with those things that is wobbly. So that would be our meeting place.

Love,
Sol

PS ( I think you are such an adorable dog)
