

Discussion Activity 1: Confrontations

To speak up, or not to speak up...

“Isabel just had to ask her, “Maeve, how can you let their comments just slid off your back like that? They make me so mad.”

Maeve shrugged. “You know, I think a few months ago I’d have cared a lot. But now it just seems like a waste of time. Anna and Joline aren’t getting any nicer, so it’s better to just say out of their way when they get nasty.”

-Just Kidding p. 56

Discuss this idea in groups of three or more. What do you think of Maeve’s idea of just keeping out of the way of Anna and Joline?

Is it better to confront people who are annoying or hurting you, or to stay away from them?

Do you think that Anna and Joline are getting the message when people avoid them?
