

 Discussion Activity 2: A Little Bravery Goes a Long Way

“As she passed Anna and Joline’s desks, she noticed that they were drawing little princesses with tiaras and funny faces all over their notebooks. Isabel wished she had some paint with her now, something she could accidentally spill on their drawings. That was the thing about Anna and Joline. They sometimes made you feel like being mean, too.”

~Out of Bounds p. 31

If only people really did always treat others the way they want to be treated. Unfortunately, that is just not always the case. In Book 4: Out of Bounds, the BSG see Anna and Joline behaving not-so-nicely quite a bit.

Describe a time when you’ve seen not-so-nice behavior.

---

---

---

What do you think causes this kind of behavior and what can you do to prevent it?

---

---

---

It takes a lot of courage to stand up for someone. Can you share a story of bravery, either of yourself or someone you know?

---

---

---

Can you site any famous acts of bravery in history where someone has stood up for what they believed in?

---

---

---