Big time adventure awaits the Beacon Street Girls and the rest of their seventh-grade class when they head to Lake Rescue in New Hampshire for their big overnight trip. How cool! Maeve and Katani are afraid of spiders and things that go bump in the night, but Avery is ready for some serious wild animal sightings and hiking, while Isabel is hoping for scenic inspiration for her next painting. Will the physical challenges of this outdoor adventure prove too challenging for one overweight seventh-grade girl?
