Writing Activity 2: Future Projections

Gaze into your crystal ball…

"Avery and Isabel laughed while they changed their clothes and walked slowly home, talking about their plans and dreams and hopes for the future. Avery wondered if the BSG would always stay in contact even when they were in college or out in the world. Would Maeve, for example, call her old friends when she was a famous star?"

-Freaked Out p. 109

Project yourself 10 or 15 years into the future: How old are you now? What are you doing? Are you still friends with some of the people you are friends with now? Take notes on facts to include in your story. Don't write the story, just review your notes. Tuck them away in a safe place to look at 10-15 years from now and on your birthday. Are you closer to your goal? Did you change your goals?
